

The Hawai'i Songwriting Festival 2018 Scholarship Application

Thanks to our generous sponsors and donors, we are pleased to offer multiple scholarship opportunities to cover the cost of attendee fees for the 2018 Hawai'i Songwriting Festival. All scholarship recipients will receive non-transferrable, compensated admission to the Hawai'i Songwriting Festival valued at $230.00.

We are also pleased to offer a limited number of larger scholarships that include hotel accommodations for 3 nights and/or inter-island airfare in addition to covering the cost of registration:

The Jerome Spence Memorial Scholarship was founded in 2017 by Jerome's fiancée, Heather Anderson (see www.kauaimusicfestival.com/jerome-spence-memorial-scholarship.html for more information).

The Jason Mraz Foundation Scholarship was founded in 2018 by Jason Mraz after he joined us as a staff member in 2017 (see www.kauaimusicfestival.com/jason-mraz-foundation-scholarship.html for more information).

Both of these scholarships give preference to applicants who:

- demonstrate financial need
- are of Native Hawaiian ancestry
- live in Hawai'i.

If you wish to be considered, please mention so in your essay and demonstrate how you meet these criteria in addition to addressing the essay prompt below.

To apply, please follow the instructions and submit this completed application by May 31, 2018. Applicants will be notified by June 15, 2018.

PLEASE NOTE: While preference is given to students, all applicants will be considered.

Postmark deadline: May 31, 2018

For applications sent via mail, please have recommenders place their letter in a sealed envelope before giving it to you to include with your completed application.
